Objective:

Escape the ghost realm before sunrise by collecting 100 candies! First person or team to collect the candies and escape is the winner.

Contents:

1x printable board

6x printable player pieces (draw more as you see fit!)

108x cards

- 25 gains
- 25 losses
- 25 surprises
- 25 affect everyone
- 8 new locations

All cards can be located on the back of this sheet OR use the website provided to generate your cards for you

Optional: Play using real candy!

Instructions:

1. Start at the starting location and roll a die. It is up to you if you want to use one or more dice.
2. Assign each player a character and everyone starts out with 5 pieces of candy.
3. Decide who is to go first, and let the game begin.
4. Use score sheets to track candy gains and losses; feel welcome to use real candy too!
5. If you land on a spot with an icon, match the icon to its corresponding card and follow each card's instructions.
6. First to 100 wins, but you can change this base on the length you would like to play for.

If you don't use the website, have someone pick a random number 1 to 25 for all cards EXCEPT new locations. That's 1 through 8.

Gravestones/New Locations:

1. Gravestone 1: You stumped upon the grave of Annabelle. A young girl who died trying to save her best friend from drowning. She died on Halloween of 1916 and she wants to give you 5 pieces of candy for visiting her. Move to the nearest empty location on the board with no symbol on it.
2. Gravestone 2: After a portal appears in front of you, you fall to the feet of a gravestone with a set of twins standing in front of you looking down. There is no date or name written on this one. One dressed as an angel and another as a devil. The angel tries to give you 10 pieces of candy, but the devil steals 6 pieces. Take your 4 pieces and hurry away. Move to the nearest empty location on the board with no symbol on it.

3. Gravestone 3: Boom. You nearly crack your head falling onto the gravestone. It has a family's last name on it rather than a single individual. The Casters, passed away in 1834 from murder while they slept peacefully. A figure of a father appears with his three children. These children have nothing, so you give them each 3 pieces of candy. Move to the nearest empty location on the board with no symbol on it.
4. Gravestone 4: This gravestone is broken in multiple locations and there appears to be broken glass besides it. An odor of decay creeps into your nose and you notice a child holding the broken glass and a flower. They peacefully hand you the flower but it transforms into 7 pieces of candy for you to take instead. Move to the nearest blank space with no symbol on it.

5. Gravestone 5: You almost trip over this gravestone as there is tall grass hiding it. Slowly leaning over it you read the name Casey and a bucket of candy appears on top of the stone. You reach in to take a piece and something snatches your hand. Jumping and falling backwards, you lose 5 pieces of candy to the laughing boy. Move to the nearest blank space with no icon on it.

6. Gravestone 6: The triplets Mason, Tyler, and Anthony all passed away in a train crash dating back to 1923. They're smiling as if they never experienced death or pain. Anthony walks up to you and the person on your right and hands you both 3 pieces of candy. Move to the nearest blank space with no symbol on it.

7. Gravestone 7: Two graves besides each other, one a husband another a wife. They're crying for one another, but they don't seem to see each other. You give them each 2 pieces of candy and move on. Move to the nearest blank space with no symbol on it.

8. Gravestone 8: This grave has no name or date inscribed. It just has different hats laying in front of it and the ghostly figures that appear seem to be of you and your party's age. Looking harder, you notice they are you if everyone cannot escape before the sunrise. It appears this grave is what has yet to occur. Everyone gains 2 pieces of candy. Move to the nearest blank space with no symbol on it.

Player Pieces

Print and cut them out! It's up to you if you want to keep them in the black square or not
